All Scripture selections for readings and litanies are from the New Revised Standard Version (NRSV) of The Holy Bible.

All information for the stories related to each hymn is from www.hymnary.org and Then Sings My Soul: 150 of the World's Greatest Hymn Stories, written by Robert J. Morgan, published by Thomas Nelson, Inc., 2003.

The green paraments symbolize Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church liturgical year, which is a continuation of the Season of Epiphany that began the Sunday after Epiphany and ended with Ash Wednesday. Ordinary Time begins on the Sunday after Pentecost and ends with Reign of Christ Sunday, the Sunday before Advent begins. Since it explores the mission of the church, the traditional color for this season is green, symbolizing growth. Ordinary Time also focuses on the important issue of how we can continually grow as disciples of Jesus Christ. Information from ucc.org.

Weekly Scriptures for Prayer and Devotion

Scripture for the Week: Jesus says, “Very truly, I tell you, whoever believes has eternal life.” John 6:47

Sunday:

The Lord searches every mind, and understands every plan and thought. 1 Chronicles 28:9

Lord, we are embarrassed by the clutter in our prayer closet, but you are not. We get stuck in shame even as you offer eternal grace. Your reward is freedom from fear. Your salvation heals our duplicity. May we trust you wholly. Amen.

Monday:

Strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. Matthew 6:33

You alone are worthy, Lord. Your ways bring life to the oppressed, humility to the proud, and justice to the nations. We see through a glass darkly; you see through an eternal lens. Open our eyes to your sovereign presence. Amen.

Tuesday:

The Lord said to Moses, “Assemble the people for me, and I will let them hear my words, so that they may learn to fear me as long as they live on the earth, and may teach their children to do so.” Deuteronomy 4:10

Gracious God, we thank you for the saints that have proclaimed your salvation throughout history. Open our ears to the voice of your servant leaders today. Calm our fears. Awaken our hopes and dreams. You are God of all. Amen

Wednesday:

Therefore revere the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served, and serve the Lord. Joshua 24:14

Forgive us, Lord, for in our zeal we put our trust in yesterday’s faith. We cling to tradition and stability rather than your living, transforming presence. Save us from the false god of predictability. Instill in us the courage to seek you anew this day. Amen.

Weekly Scriptures for Prayer and Devotion

Thursday:

We know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him. Romans 8:28 (NIV)

Holy Spirit, fall fresh on your church. Empower us to overcome timid hearts and divisive tongues. In all things may your love reign. Amen.

Friday:

Jesus prays, “I am not asking you to take them out of the world, but I ask you to protect them from the evil one.” John 17:15

Gracious God, under your wings we find comfort and protection. Though storms may come we know that we are in your loving care. Evil is real, but is no match for your resurrection power. We pray to put our trust in you always. Amen.

Saturday:

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Hebrews 13:7

God of history and eternity, we praise you for the inspired lives of those upon whose shoulders we stand. Empower us to also live lives of courage and practical faith. May you be glorified. In Christ’s name. Amen.
