

Paraments

The paraments are purple for Advent, a season of spiritual preparation for the celebration of the birth of Christ (Christmas) while looking forward to the future reign of Christ. Eschatological expectation rather than personal penitence is the central theme of the season. Advent is the preparation for, rather than a celebration of, Christmas. The liturgical color purple symbolizes the sovereignty of Christ and communal penitence. (ucc.org)

Monday:

Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he has looked favorably on his people and redeemed them. He has raised up a mighty savior for us in the house of his servant David. Luke 1:68–69

Lord God, we rejoice that you sent your son Jesus to redeem our souls. Let us be glad that in this season of Advent you remain present with us, guiding us daily and preparing us for your second coming. Amen.

Tuesday:

Jesus said, “No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old cloak; otherwise, the patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear is made.” Mark 2:21

Father, when you sent your Son, you sent a new way of life which offers us a life of redemption and salvation. May we live each day in a way that shows that we are redeemed, saved, and loved by you. Amen.

Wednesday:

God, remember your congregation, which you acquired long ago, which you redeemed to be the tribe of your heritage. Psalm 74:2

Saturday:

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. Jeremiah 23:5

Divine Creator, hear our hosannas for your incarnation amongst your creation who shows us perfect grace and love. Leave us not in our feeble and imperfect efforts to follow your will, but lead us toward divine justice, love, and grace. Amen.
