One: Happy are those whose hope is in God,
maker of heaven and earth,

Many: for God keeps faith forever!

God provides justice for the oppressed and gives food for the hungry.

God sets the prisoners free and lifts up those who are bowed down.

God cherishes those who do what is right.
and frustrates the plans of the wicked.

All: for God keeps faith forever!

Today's Call to Worship is from the United Church of Christ's Worship Ways website at ucc.org/worship/worship-ways.

The green paraments symbolize Ordinary Time, the longest season of the church liturgical year, which is a continuation of the Season of Epiphany that began the Sunday after Epiphany and ended with Ash Wednesday. Ordinary Time begins on the Sunday after Pentecost and ends with Reign of Christ Sunday, the Sunday before Advent begins. Since it explores the mission of the church, the traditional color for this season is green, symbolizing growth. Ordinary Time also focuses on the important issue of how we can continually grow as disciples of Jesus Christ.

Weekly Scriptures for Prayer and Devotion

Scripture for the Week: Jesus says, “Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth.” John 17:17

Sunday:

When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth. John 16:13

Heavenly Father, may we, your children, meet today once more to adore and worship you with pure hearts and thanksgiving. Bless our congregations in the world. Give us courage to serve you faithfully. In the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Monday:

Simeon said, “My eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.” Luke 2:30–32

Merciful Savior, we are your disciples today. May we work in your kingdom and spread your word through the power of the Holy Spirit. We work to increase the number of believers throughout the world, so that all may know their Creator. Amen.

Tuesday:

See, the Lord’s hand is not too short to save, nor his ear too dull to hear. Rather, your iniquities have been barriers between you and your God. Isaiah 59:1–2

Sovereign Lord, the world is shrouded in darkness. Many schools and homes do not pray anymore. We are dependent on material things instead of spiritual things, and we forget that you are our Creator and Sustainer. Forgive us and plant your peace in our hearts. Amen.

Wednesday:

Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Matthew 5:7

Holy Spirit, we pray for all who are in need, all who are suffering, and all who do not know about you. Many wait for your grace and mercy; do not forget them. In the name of Jesus we pray. Amen.

Weekly Scriptures for Prayer and Devotion

Thursday:

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my whole life long. Psalm 23:6

Our lovely God, your mercy surpasses all understanding. It is only because of your mercy that we live. We do not deserve such love, but you give it to us anyway. Thank you for sending your Son to die for us, that we may be released from sin. Amen.

Friday:

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory. Isaiah 6:3

Eternal God, we stand protected by your presence and your strength. Continue being our armor and giving us heavenly direction. We trust and depend on you. We are not alone. You promise to be with us always. In the name of our Savior we pray. Amen.

Saturday:

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people. Matthew 4:23

Dear Lord, make us your servants to minister to the sick and helpless. Help us to aid in healing, transforming souls, reconciling, and empowering lives. You are faithful and your love endures forever. Jesus Christ is alive and through his Holy Spirit we can serve you until you return! Amen.
